

JOHN BOISVERT

- Certified Executive Coach
- Leadership Effectiveness Coaching & Consulting
- Master in Interpersonal Communication
- 20 years of business experience
- Past Chairman of the Executive Coaching Summit

John Boisvert advises and coaches executives in the areas of improving personal and organizational performance, high-impact communication, and team and organizational alignment. John's hands-on business background and knowledge, combined with his extensive executive coaching experience, provides his clients with a valuable balance of insight and understanding while implementing practical, direct, and strategic applications towards their business goals.

John's specialty as an executive coach is increasing the leadership effectiveness of individuals in organizations. John is a master in communication and personal presence and impact. His passion and expertise is focusing on increasing individual performance and results through his leading-edge work in this arena which includes:

- Improving executive presence
- Increasing communication effectiveness and impact
- Expanding individual capacity for strategic thinking and planning
- Maximizing personal and organizational performance and contribution
- Building high value relationships

John's background includes 20 years of national and international experience in consulting, financial services, technology services, eCommerce and distribution. His clients include Fortune 500 companies, start-up companies, government entities, and higher education organizations. He has held senior positions in general management, sales and marketing, and information technology. He has managed the U.S. and Australasian sales and client management services for Elcom International. At Mellon Trust, he managed the custody management, treasury, and global cash processing systems, with staff in the U.S and Europe.

John is also a leader in the field of executive coaching. He led the design and implementation of a 100 person international executive coaching and leadership development program, and served as Chairman for the International Executive Coaching Summit, the premier annual conference of top international coaches. John chaired the Corporate Coach Committee for the International Coaching Federation-New England.

John is currently serving as Chairman of the Child Abuse Prevention Center Board, and holds current and past positions as President or Trustee of various community and non-profit organizations.

John holds degrees in mathematics and economics from Boston College. He is certified through the Executive Coaching institute and is an executive coaching student mentor. John is a student himself with the Human Systems Institute, and is a practitioner of martial arts.

John lives with his wife Maureen and his four sons in Massachusetts.