

SUZI POMERANTZ, MT, MCC

- Master Certified Coach
- Board Member International Consortium for Coaching in Organizations
- Board Member International Journal for Coaching in Organizations
- Executive Coaching Summit Member
- Author, Seal the Deal: The Essential Mindsets for Growing Your Professional Services Business (HRD Press, 2006)

Suzi Pomerantz, MT, MCC is an international Master Certified Executive Coach, performance consultant, facilitator, corporate trainer and author with over 15 years of coaching and teaching experience working with leaders and teams in over 120 organizations internationally, including 7 companies on the Fortune 100 list.

Ms. Pomerantz's clients include leaders and teams from Accenture, DuPont, Lockheed Martin, PriceWaterhouseCoopers, Tyco, General Motors, Sears, Welch's, Pfizer, American Express Financial Advisors, Freddie Mac and many others. A coaching veteran in the legal industry, She has coached leaders in 6 corporate law departments and a dozen law firms. Ms. Pomerantz also has coaching experience in a wide range of industries including: consulting, financial services, manufacturing, hospitality, entrepreneurial enterprises, government, educational institutions, and MBA programs.

Ms. Pomerantz helps executives, leaders and high performing, high-potential future leaders to clarify their vision and exceed prior performance. She provides executive coaching, team coaching, and emerging leader coaching in organizations to assist executives and their teams with setting strategic direction for their organizations, managing talent, and developing leadership bench strength. She also develops leaders in teambuilding, sales, planning and conducting effective meetings, and facilitating change. She helps organizations develop and retain leadership capacity by coaching leaders in executive presence, presentation skills, personal power, communication, and vision work.

A recognized leader passionate about excellence, integrity, legacy, impact, leadership in organizations and stewardship of the profession of coaching, Suzi has presented as well as participated for 7 years at the International Executive Coaching Summit, an invitation-only annual gathering of senior executive coaching experts, presented at the 11th annual International Coach Federation Conference, and taught executive coaches at the Executive Coach Academy. She has also delivered guest lectures at George Washington University, Loyola University, and the University of Virginia and has coached executives in the MBA Program at Darden. She served on both the Executive Coaching Committee and the Application Review Committee of the International Coach Federation and served on the International Executive Coaching Summit Planning team for three years.

Ms. Pomerantz is a recognized leader in the advancement of the profession of coaching in organizations, serving on several international boards of directors. She is a founding member of the International Journal of Coaching in Organizations (IJCO) and currently serves a second term on the editorial board. She is also a founding member, Vice President, and founding board member of the International Consortium for Coaching in Organizations (ICCO), and currently serves her second term on that board as well. In addition, she was the founding Vice President of POWER, a non-profit organization that provides trainers and consultants to charitable organizations.

Suzi holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Virginia and a Master's degree from the University of Virginia's Curry School of Education. Her honors include Kappa Delta Pi International Education Honor Society.